

Biography: Mac Mechem

After graduating high school in Texas, Mechem spend one year in Europe traveling around absorbing culture and art. It was this experience that shifted his life to the arts, where he made the decision to make art and teach art. He received his BA and MA in the arts from Fresno State University, and began teaching at McLane High School and later in the city college system.